Personal Statement

An incredibly enthusiastic and eager to learn and develop ny skills as a production office trainee. Despite being born with a rare genetic condition that means I'm visually impaired, this doesn't stop me in being a great communicator, never afraid to ask questions and complete tasks to the best of my ability. I'm adaptable to any situation that I find myself in. I pride myself on being exceptionally punctual and being able to make great tea with a passion for all things film and TV,
